Image: Parkwood Entertainment / Columbia Records On September 4, 1981, the world of music has been changed forever. It is the day when the pop icon and the R&B legend, Beyoncé Giselle Knowles was born. As a child, it was clear that she was destined to celebrity. In fact, the young musician began to focus on his singing when he was only 7 years old. After getting his big break with Destiny's Child, Beyoncé continued to win the prize after the prize and collaborated with other huge names in the business. She went to release an amazing solo album that debuted at the top of the music charts. And we're sure there will be more! Beyoncé's success gave her a family name long ago, but how much do you really know about the singer's discography? Are you able to recognize his music videos based on ambientation, costume or who else is in the video? If you consider yourself a Beyoncé expert, then it's time to prove yourself through the questions in this quiz. Copyright © 2021 InfoSpace Holdings, LLC, a System1 Company Beyoncé has just abandoned a new music and song video called Formation, and is breaking the Internet in real fashion Beyoncé. The releasejust 24 hours before his very popular Super Bowl performance, so now we know what to expect - and it's amazing. He teased the new Instagram video with several posts showing the long braids and the polka-dot killer manicure that he exercises throughout the video, then he directed fans to his website to see the whole thing. We are particularly fixed on how the hair comes into play during the video and the song itself. Beyoncé sports a rotation of various styles (also impressive) throughout it: more types of braids, curls, and some updos totally badass. She also brings Afros and also incorporates a lyric that is a nod to the hair of Blue Ivy: "I like my baby hair with baby hair and Afros." Regina B, once again, bow. Everything is epic, usually. And we'll bet everyone's been a little bit more excited to see the Super Bowl tomorrow.
