Where to Find the Best MS Word Resume Templates? (Envato Elements vs GraphicRiver) We've just shown you two lists of the best professional resume templates for Word. One from Envato Elements and another from GraphicRiver. Which source should you use for your resume? That depends. If you think you've found the perfect resume template for the job you're targeting, then you'll have to buy it where it's available. While some items may be on both Envato Elements and GraphicRiver, this isn't always the case. Simple Resume Anata If you're not attached to any particular resume template design, then your decision will boil down to two options: Pay a flat fee for unlimited downloads. Pay for individual items a la carte. Envato Elements makes sense for you if you think you'll be using several Microsoft Word resume templates. You're also better off if you want to use premium fonts, images, and icons other than the ones already included in the template. If that's the case, then Envato Elements is your most cost-effective option. A few other benefits of using Envato Elements include: You aren't limited to a single design as you can download as many resumes or CV templates for Word as you need and use a different one for each job application. Easily customize the templates to your liking with other creative assets from Envato Elements. For example, you can easily download a beautiful and elegant or modern font to use with your resume or CV. You don't have to worry about complicated licenses and wonder if you can reuse the same template again. Envato Elements makes licensing terms incredibly simple. But, if you only need one template and you're happy with fonts and icons that come with it, then GraphicRiver is where you should be looking for your Word resume template DOC. How to Quickly Customize a Professional Resume in Word Once you've found your perfect resume template, it's time to customize it. It's not to mention that your education and skills but also your personality. Luckily, customizing a Word resume template is easy. Follow the steps below and you'll have created an outstanding resume. We'll use an Envato Elements professional resume DOC as an example. 1. Add Your Own Information The first thing you should do is replace the dummy information with your own. All you've got to do is click on the resume section that you want to edit, select and delete the dummy copy. Now, start entering your own information. 2. Add Your Logo If your resume template comes with a logo placeholder, you'll want to make sure to replace it with your own logo. This will allow you to establish your personal brand and make you more recognizable. To replace the existing logo, first, click on it and delete it. Then, click the Insert tab, select Pictures and choose Picture from file. Browse to the folder that's got your logo image and insert it into your resume template. Adding a logo to your MS Word Resume template 3. Customize the Colors With that out of the way, it's time to customize the colors that your MS Word resume template DOCX uses. Do this by right-clicking on the shape or element and selecting Format Object. You'll notice a sidebar to your right where you can click on the Fill tool and choose your preferred color. Customizing the colors of your MS Word template is easy. 4. Adjust the Fonts Finally, tweak the fonts by selecting a paragraph and choosing a new font from the drop-down menu. Then, do the same for the headings. Or click on the Design tab, select Fonts in the ribbon. Then choose a set of fonts that you like from the drop-down menu. This allows you to change fonts in one place only. The changes will be reflected across the entire professional resume format doc. Changing the fonts on your resume template DOCX You've just customized a resume template! 5 Quick Resume Writing & Design Tips for the Perfect Resume in 2021 Even if you've bought a professional resume template, you still need to know how to get the best from them. We've got some stellar tips on creating the perfect resume below, from how to write a great resume to how to customize it in Word. Before jumping into them though, review this tutorial that covers the process of making a great resume: Resumes How to Make a Great Professional Resume (For Top 2020 Jobs) Laura Spencer Nely for the quick-fire resume tips: 1. Make Your Resume Fit the Position and Opportunity Ensure that you're molding your resume to match exactly the type of position the employer is searching for. Incorporate info about yourself that pertains to what they need. Tell a compelling story on your resume and make sure your skills and work history stand out. 2. Rely on Columns In resume design, you want to make it easier for your readers to quickly see the most important areas. Guiding their eyes by using columns is vital to helping them get the most important takeaways. Be sure to structure your resume well. You can see the use of clean design and clear columns in the resume design shown below: Clean Word resume design with clearly defined columns. 3. Use Sidebars and Call Outs Your aim has to be to make the most impressive info pop out at your readers. So, use a sidebar to list all your noteworthy successes and achievements. A call out right in the middle of your resume's copy focuses attention on a significant detail while also breaking up the chunk of text. Be Different Something as simple as altering the orientation of your professional resume DOC. Elements like infographics will make you stand out in a heartbeat. Don't be afraid to make your resume more creative. Also, spend time to add your personal branding to your resume. The creative Word resume template design below allows for simple personal branding. The use of stand-out infographics while keeping with a minimal, professional aesthetic. Creative Word resume template with minimal design. 5. Aim for Brevity Don't write too much on your resume since it should match your years of experience. For instance, if you're still in your twenties, then one page will suffice. Even if you've been working a while, don't include everything you've ever done. You can lose the attention of hiring managers this way. Instead, curate your work experience so that it fits the job you're applying to and keep it to no more than two pages. 5 Top Professional Word Resume Trends for 2021 With the tips from the last section, your professional resume is almost ready. To increase the chances of your CV being seen you'll want to check out these latest trends: 1. Toned Down Colors Black and white resumes aren't a thing of the past, but they aren't the only option you've got. Using a template CV for Word with colors can help you get ahead of the pack. You don't need to go too colorful. One of two complementing tones will work great. This download template CV Word file has colors that complement, not overpower, your content. 2. Experience in Numbers Previous work experience is on every resume. But what recruiters really want is to see your impact quickly. That's why it's becoming more popular to show your impact in numbers. It's a great trend to use to keep skimming recruiters interested in you as a candidate. 3. Link to Social Media More and more employers look to social media to understand who their candidates are. This trend will help you seem more personable. If you know your social media isn't completely professional, feel free to ignore this trend or link to your LinkedIn. Share your social media presence with this fashionable template CV for Word. 4. Emphasis on Soft Skills Make sure you show recruiters you're a candidate who can fit in a team with this trend. While crafting the skills section of your resume, talk about your non-technical skills. In a crowded job market, this can be a deciding factor. This is one of the best resume templates for Word that include soft skills naturally in its design. 5. Useful Action Verbs Verb choice has become more and more important in 2021. Action verbs are proving to be the way to go on resumes. They make your resume stand out. Here's an excellent list of action verbs you can use from The Muse.
