PUBG KR Runic POWER 1.2 Update Runic Power will be added to the game from 12 January to 7 March: Players players Being able to choose the energy of Rune while on Spawn Island. Where players will get two types of skills from it; Ron's abilities are represented in the following. Abolence of evocation of the flame rune: convenes a wheel in the form of a flame, which advances slowly, while destroying the enemies and kill them as soon as you touch them. Ability to improve the strength of the elements: here I intend to force the elements of ammunition, where the strength of destructive flame is added when the ammunition is shot by the weapon for a short time. Rune Polar Power This force calls a wall of ice, and this wall is composed of separate blocks, and each of these blocks can be exploded separately. This ice wall raises players and their vehicles from the level of the battlefield. This force gives the freezing effect of ammunition that fires from your weapon for a short period. Because this effect delays the opponent's ability to recover. Wind force The force of the wind requires a transparent shield around the character with which you are fighting, and this shield in turn reduces the speed of the bullet that is heading towards you and reduces its impact on you if you strike you, or It can clear its effect depending on the distance from which it was launched. This force affects your movement by increasing its speed. The speed of the reconstruction of the weapon with ammunition also increases. Strong shield mode (starts from 5 November on the Island of Evo Ground) In this mode, the members of the team killed can be reported in the game. Shield of strength of the piece: reduces the damage to the chest when it has fired and increases the capacity of the backpack that leads to the tour. Armrest: increases your impact on the enemy when your hands are crossed and reduce damage to the arm. Shield Strength Legs: it gives you a quick burst, reducing the damage to the legs during the battle. When you collect the entire set of armor, unlock a powerful call weapon (dragon breath grenade). Matrix Event 1: improves supplies that reach team members in a specific area. Matrix Event 2: offers multiple multiple airports in the game, as well as enhance the supplies to the players of each airport. Matrix Event III: This event is used to discover the surrounding players and find out which of them are still alive. (Start January 12th) This mode is the last chapter of the game. Contains the new Royal Honor metro system. Contains a new solo mode. Contains real metro improvements. New firearms and many new Options Famas Weapon is a new assault rifle that uses 5.56 mm ammunition. You can recycle more than 25 times, and has the highest fire rate than other rifles.
