Finally, because you can print both customs form and international postage using Stamps.com, you won't need to travel to the post office at any point during the shipping process, making your operation much more efficient. You'll need to be signed into your account to see the search results, but it's free to set up the account. Mailbox Locators A mailbox locator service that specializes in mail delivery service can show you the closest spot to drop off a letter or package, according to Mailbox Locator. You can pick them up from the Post Office, order them by mail or print them from your computer using an Internet-based postage service such as Stamps.com, containing only documents No Customs Form needed if under 16 oz. containing only documents First Class Package International Service Priority Mail International Flat Rate Envelope (Legal or Regular) Priority Mail International Flat Rate Box (Small) Priority Mail International Flat Rate Box (Medium or Large) Priority Mail International Package Priority Mail Express International (All packages, envelopes & Flat Rate boxes) (under $400 value) (over $400 value) APO/FPO/DPO (15 oz. These options are available by clicking the dropdown list under Location Types. The Benefits of International Shipping with Stamps.com Stamps.com makes international shipping easier than ever. With Stamps.com's automated forms, your staff will never have to hunt for the appropriate customs forms at the Post Office or painstakingly handwrite another customs form ever again. You can fill out all of your needed forms directly through the Stamps.com interface, and then print your postage, address labels and customs forms in one easy step. The results after clicking enter show nearby USPS locations. Finding the USPS Office in a Paper Phone Directory Using a traditional printed phone directory is another way to find the nearest USPS location, or more. All Other Packages Swipe right to see entire table There are three ways to obtain customs forms. Other places to look include a mailbox locator website, online directories and traditional printed directories. USPS App When you need to visit the Post Office for letter mailing service, one quick option is to open the USPS mobile app and allow it to use your device's location to locate the nearest office. You then enter your city and state or zip code and the maximum distance you want to search. You also have the option to enter keywords, such as USPS, or Post Office, and add your location in the form of city and state or your zip code. They also eliminate the confusion of selecting which form to use, since the software automatically generates the appropriate form based on the information you provide. The USPS mobile app can also perform the same tasks as the full website. There are a variety of options in the locator tool to find different types of offices. When you find the listing, it should include the street address as well as the phone number to call if you want to talk to someone from the postal service before visiting. These services may offer the geolocation function through your computer or mobile device, to generate results with a map, turn-by-turn directions to the nearest postal drop box or a written version of the street location of the closest postal box. Online Directories to Find the Nearest USPS Office Online versions of phone directories are another place you can check to find the locations of USPS Post Offices in your area, or less) (16 oz. The USPS website is the best place to look when you need to find the nearest USPS location. This generates a map that shows the nearest office in comparison to your current location. In the white pages section, you can look under the letter U, for the first letter in the word United in the postal service's official title. MORE FROM QUESTIONS ANSWERED. NET International Mail Class PS Form 2976 Customs Declaration - CN 22 (short form) PS 2976-A Customs Declaration & Dispatch Note - CP72 (long form) First Class Mail International - Large Envelope (Flats) No Customs Form needed if under 16 oz. To complete USPS customs forms using Stamps.com, you'll be asked to supply some basic information, including whether your package is a commercial sample, gift, document, return or other. You can search for the nearest Post Office, approved postal provider, self-service kiosk, collection box, or office that handles passports, greeting cards and stamp collecting supplies. You'll also be asked to specify the quantity of each unique item, along with a description, value, weight, country of origin and HS tariff number (if applicable and known). To use these directories, you can allow them to use your location to generate results if that option pops up. Stamps.com's automated customs forms are much easier and faster to use than filling out forms by hand. In the yellow pages section of the print directory, look under G for government, and then scan the page to find either USPS or United States Postal Service.
