This is one of the most common problems that can happen with older gas. So, is it exactly a pilot light, why did it come out and how much can you turn on it again? Let us cover these questions and then. What is a pilot light? A pilot light is a small flame that is used to light the burners in older gas. (The newer ovens use an eligric lighter) Why did my pilot light go out? There are several reasons why your pilot light may have come out: burning flame of Bil; the light of your pilot should be burning bright blue. If it becomes yellow, then something is causing it to be inefficient. Its thermocouple must detect this and turn off the gas voyement to its pilot light. Malfunction of thermocoza: dirt can accumulate in the admisity valve and restrict the amount of oxygen that is required to maintain the pilot light burned in an efficient way. Your pilot light can leave when there is a strong shot around your oven. How do I turn on a pilot light again in a gas fury has attached instructions to them? It is recommended to move to the owner of the oven and follow the manufacturer's instructions. If the instructions are not present, this is the general procedure that can follow: Step 1: Find the pilot light. Usually, it is close to the bottom of the oven and has a gas valve with configurations lit, off and pilot. Step 2: Turn off the vines and wait three minutes. No tools should be required to do this. You should be able to turn the knob with your fingers. Don't skip this step. Turn off the valve leaves incoming gas flow, but does not stop the gas that is already emitted. Waiting for three minutes, let the gas dissipate. Step 3: Change the vitario to the pilot's configuration. emeuq emeuq es otolip led amall al euq atсах odimirped n'Atob etse agnetnaM .otolip lortnoc ed lenap le ne oicinier le anoiserp sartneim otolip led arutreba al ne adanimuli aicnedicnioc al Lastly, set the valve to the on position. The furnace should start automatically.Step 4: Wait to see if the pilot light stays on. If the pilot light woncAAAt stay lit, the opening may be clogged. Turn the gas valve off, and clean the opening with a piece of fine wire. If it still woncAAAt stay lit after several attempts, you may have a faulty thermocouple.If this sounds like a job you rather not attempt, or you just need a little help along the way call A.J.
