Roblox myths question hall answers 2020

This page is about the group Roblox's Myths group on Roblox. For the page on myths, go here. Current thumbnail for Roblox's Myths "Let the hunt begin." — Roblox's Myths Roblox's Myths (also known as the RM Foundation or RM) was the group owned by Exedious after Kazdam retired from being exposed as a pedophile, and was the most popular and debatably the most un-professional myth hunting group to date. Roblox's Myths branches out into many small groups for different purposes. RM was replaced by the Bureau of Myths as it's successor. Description ----- From 2014 to 2020, Kazdam owned and lead the Roblox's Myths Foundation. Kazdam had inappropriate, and even illegal interactions with multiple members of the community which later lead to his resignation. The high ranks of RM have decided to permanently shut down the group as to not continue his legacy any further, thank you for the good memories you've all shared with us, and fuck you Kazdam. ----- History Roblox's Myths in March 2018 Roblox's Myths in May 2018 Roblox's Myths had started in 2014, mainly for spreading the word on ROBLOX myths and getting people interested in them. The group has grown over the past years, still growing (not as much due to drama) to this day. Along with people still playing the facility to this day. And people such as Taphies, badloftmymkiller, SinKills, and more, have taken a high position in this group. As many people, fans, friends, look up to them. However, on August 16th 2020, Kazdam was confronted by Taphies and HallowsFog, then exposed on Twitter by LadySarah. Along with a Youtuber Jjobean0225 YT, who posted a 4 part series of exposing videos on his channel. Kazdam lost popularity and the group is now inactive. In December 2020, Roblox's Myths was botted by TikTok users that followed an account named "Death Dolly." This made Roblox's Myths become the most popular myth hunting group with the group gaining almost one hundred thousand members at that time. In March 2021, Creamofcrab retired as Head Of RM, and Exedious was appointed as the new Head Of RM. In August 1st 2021, The group announced that the group is going to shutdown and has a successor, Bureau of Myths. Ranks Myth Hunter Ranks Ranks Description Rating Associate Lowest rank acquired once joining the group, unable to talk in group wall or be able to use most channels in the Roblox's Myths discord server until moving up to Clearance 1. Low Rank Clearance I Clearance I is the first standard rank of the foundation, considered still low clearance. Obtaining Clearance I, as previously stated, requires the passing of the Myth Knowledge Assessment, and obtaining the badge at the end. Clearance I Personnel unlock access to join departments and use the primary discord communication channel. Clearance II Clearance II Personnel are newcomers to departments, but have begun their journey in the foundation, and chosen a department to call their home. They gain access to Block B unrestricted. C2 requires you obtain the rank of either Probationary Agent in Intelligence Agency or Private in Sentinels (Security and Task Force are now Sub-Departments, but it's the rank of Cadet in Security and Private in Task Force). Clearance III Clearance III Personnel are experienced members of the Foundation and have proven their worth through their effort in their respective department. They gain access to Block C unrestricted. C3 requires you obtain either the rank of Field Agent in the Intelligence Agency, the rank of Junior Guardsman in Security, or the rank of Junior Reserves in Task Force. Middle Rank Clearance IV Clearance IV Personnel are veteran members of the Foundation, extremely skilled and professional in their area of expertise. They gain access to Block D unrestricted, as well as admin at the Universal Training Facility. C4 requires you obtain either the rank of Lieutenant in Sentinels (Head Operative in Task Force or Second Lieutenant in Security) or the rank of Internal Agent in the Intelligence Agency. Clearance V Clearance V Personnel are the most seasoned of all members in the Foundation, they are the handpicked High Ranks of their department. They are granted moderator at the Containment Facility and unrestricted access to anywhere in the Facility. C5 requires you obtain either the rank of Commander/Overseer/Assistant Director in Sentinels (Commander/General/Assistant Overseer/Overseer in Task Force or Security) or the rank of Chief Inspector/Overseer/Assistant Director in the Intelligence Agency. High Rank Supervisor Supervisors are the large moderation body of the Foundation, in charge of rule enforcement, discord moderation, and hosting group-wide events. To become a Supervisor, you must apply or come in for an interview during periods known as Supervisor Application Periods, also known as SAPs. The questions and requirements change based on the state of the Foundation, and are always announced when the SAPs are announced themselves, these requirements and questions are dictated by the head of rm and/or Chairman(or Chairmen). Supervisors do not lead any department affairs, and can join departments as any normal member, becoming a Supervisor is simply accepting more responsibility, with a chance to prove yourself and possibly rank up further in the event Council Positions have no foreseeable replacements. Supervisors also gain Admin in the Containment Facility and Moderation privilege in the Discord. The Council The Council is the main administrative body of the Foundation, in charge of running many day-to-day operations, each position of the Council is reserved for a specific job, these are separated into two categories, High Council, and Low Council. High Council Members run departments and are the highest rank in that department, they can coordinate with the head of rm and/or Chairman to make changes to their department, and ensure it runs smoothly. Low Council Members do not run departments, and instead opt for specific responsibilities within the Foundation, such as the Head of Marketing who manages Social Media efforts and advertising/image related things. Both the High and Low Council have the same privilege in the main group, they can vote on passing new Executive Orders and sending them to the head of rm for Chairman for approval. (see Executive Orders for more information). You do not need to be a Supervisor to become a High Council Member, you can do so by being chosen as the successor of the previous Head of any department. Which is only valid if you were in that department and active at the time of their departure. The Low Council, however, can be hand-picked from the Supervisors. Additionally, all Council Members get admin in the discord and also get admin in the Facility if they did not already have it. The Chairman The Chairman (or Chairmen) is basically the Head of the Executives, they enforce all rules, laws and quotas given to the Executives, and oversee all votes and other procedures in the Foundation. The Chairman/men are the successor to the Foundation in the event the Myth King retires, meaning they will oversee all operations and planning from there on out. However, the Myth King will always hold the group. The Chairman is handpicked by the Myth King himself and is given special administrative privileges. The Head Of RM The Head Of RM is the de facto ruler of the Foundation, he/she oversees all operations, does all planning for any games, files, etc, writes all rules and laws, and has override action over any decisions made within the Foundation if he views it as something against the best interests of the Foundation. Owner Myth Ranks: Ranks Description Requirement Investigated Myth Investigated Myths are myths that have a hard time getting noticed by hunters despite having a well-written story. They are creative people that do their best to intrigue hunters, and they put a sufficient amount of time into their myth. The requirements for this rank are to have at least 500 visits, which is able to be bypassed if the game is well-made, they must be active in the myth community, and they must have a unique story. Notable Myth Notable Myths are myths worthwhile to investigate, they have very interesting concepts, are just garnering enough attention that hunters recognize and consider it a myth. They're not standard bland myths with the usual formula. It's one that has a unique story with a decent enough game. Basic requirements for this rank are to have at least 1,000 place visits, which can be bypassed by having a good game. Other requirements call for minimal free models, and a unique story, and not a common myth trope. Documented Myth Documented Myths are above and beyond, they are very interesting, have gained a lot of attention from hunters. Have a great game with a unique story that incites very strong curiosity or other emotions. Documented Myths get 'official' myth files written about them in the main wiki page. Requirements call for 20,000 Place Visits (this can be bypassed by having an excellent game), the game must have minimal free models (it can't be entirely made up of them), the story must not only be unique, but also draw people in, and be truly interesting, the myth, and all others involved, must rarely ever break character, if at all, and the avatar must be well thought out, and fit the tone of the myth. Contained Myth Contained Myths are the pinnacle of myths in the community, they are extremely interesting, uniquely crafted, they stand out amongst the others. They have fantastic games and a story that is written as though it were a book. The world crafted around the myth must be immersive, investing, and incite strong emotions, this can be fear, sadness, or even joy. They are extremely popular and recognized by any seasoned member of the community. Requirements include 50,000+ Place Visits, the game must have little to no free models, the story must be extremely well written, investing, and incite curiosity, the myth must be in character at all times, and committed to the part, the game must be well designed, vast, and have lots to explore/find, the avatar of said myth should be unique, stand out, and be instantly recognizable, and myths in this rank must be approved to become this rank by The Head Of RM. Miscellaneous Ranks: Rank Description Rating ROBLOX Staff This rank is reserved for any Roblox Staff who join the Foundation, they are automatically ranked to it regardless of their contributions, as a rank to honor their status and work for Roblox. This rank includes all Site Moderators, Engineers, Interns, etc. ROBLOX Staff Content Creator This rank is given to popular content creators that join the group. One notable person with this rank is Speedy2662 along with many others. Content Creator Honorary Member Honorary Members cover a wide range of people, the bulk of Honorary Members consist of respected and renowned retired HRS, who contributed a great deal to the foundation during their tenure in said position. HRS who did little for the Foundation, or left in bad taste, do not receive honorary. All Honorary HRS are put into the Hall of Fame and given wiki files. The rest of the Honorary Rank consist of famous members and/or specially recognized personnel, who may directly have contributed to RM. This can include Youtubers, Famous Developers, or non-developer contributors to RM games. Honorary Ally Representative A representative of an allied group. Ally Developer Developers are the reason the Containment Facility, Myth Knowledge Assessment, Universal Training Facility, or Hall of Fame, exist at all. They contribute their time and effort to delivering you great content, fun features, and the group you call home. Their rank gives them special access to group games, and the ability to edit said games. There is currently no way aside from being approached, or approaching Creamofcrab about being developer, to become one. However, this will be changed in the near future. Development RM Bot This rank is given only to the RM Bot, which is coded by virtuousnub. Bot Leadership Exedious Exedious is the current leader of RM. Creamofcrab Creamofcrab gained ownership through convincing SenseViny that he would either lead RM to be great once again, or archive it. Neither happened, with him leaving Exedious in charge and disappearing entirely from RM. SenseViny SenseViny was the owner of RM for a brief amount of time after Kazdam's resignation before retiring from the myth community. Kazdam Kazdam is the former owner and founder of Roblox's Myths. He retired when he was exposed for horrible activities. Phill p Phill p is the former chairman of RM, being the chairman after FoxBans retired from the position to take on being a member of the Council. He stepped down from his position as chairman and is now ranked honorary member. Bureau of Myths Bureau of Myths is the successor to RM made to distance it from the Kazdam drama Roblox's Myths Sentinels Roblox's Myths Sentinels seems to have to do with the RM Foundation Security. It branches out into many groups. Roblox's Myths Security Unit The RM Foundation Security Unit is the only thing standing between you, and the face of horror. Security Personnel are the unquestionable force of authority within the Foundation. Ensuring protocol is followed, protecting personnel and civilians alike, operating checkpoints, and preventing breaches. It has two branches which are RMSU | Archangels and RMSU | Safeguard. Roblox's Myths Task Force Unit The RM Foundation Task Force Unit is what protects you from myth breaches, hostile attacks, people who disobey RM rules, and riots. In the event of a disaster, RMTF will take charge and keep the RM Foundation and all who are in it safe. They have many branches which are RMTFU | The Blades, RMTFU | The Cavalry, RMTFU | Electrocutioners, RMTFU | Black Devils, RMTFU | Dragons Breath, RMTFU | Maz Hatters, RMTFU | The Wardens, RMTFU | Mole Rats, and RMTFU | Flying Fish. Roblox's Myths Advanced Strategic Unit The RM Foundation Advanced Strategic Unit prevents attacks before they happen by intercepting raids and collapsing RM counter-groups. Advanced Strategic Unit is also in charge of practicing strategies and features before being put into place, they are tasked with aiding Council members with confidential tasks. Roblox's Myths Corporate The RM Corporate Department contains multiple branches inside of it, each featuring custom jobs and perks to come with it. Corporate's branches include Ethics, Documentation, Foreign Relations, Human Resources, Marketing, and most importantly Janitorial. It's branches are Roblox's Myths Human Resources, Roblox's Myths Foreign Affairs, Roblox's Myths Janitorial Services, Roblox's Myths Documentation, and Roblox's Myths Ethics Committee. Roblox's Myths Scientific Development The RM Scientific Development Department is composed of the world's most brilliant minds that spend their entire life's work in finding the secrets of their contained myths. Their scientists are tasked with studying these anomalies and developing countermeasures for containment breaches. Roblox's Myth Reception The RM Reception Department is the first thing the world sees when introduced to the foundation. Receptionists are in charge of tours, information, and maintaining the offices. Roblox's Myths Medical Department The RM Medical Department is responsible for the well being of foundation personnel. They go through the difficult task of tending to any wounded personnel, curing any diseases, and even evaluating mental states. The standards are set high for the Medical Department ensuring that it's employees get the best treatment. Roblox's Myths Technology The Technology Department, also known as RomTech is the development branch of the RM Foundation. This division is responsible for building facilities, scripting, and anything beneficial for us. The manufacturing department is the very reason why the Foundation has such advanced technology for their sites. Roblox's Myths Executives Only the highest of status in the RM Foundation may join this department. Roblox's Myths Intelligence Agency The RM Intelligence Agency, also known as the RMIA, is the center of all the foundations information. Interrogations, recon, closed investigations, internal security, the RMIA continues to make sure the Foundation is always one step ahead of everyone else. The Phantom Battalion The Phantom Battalion does not act toxic towards the foundation. Unlike regular raiding, they plan out their raids and act strategically. Games Abandoned Facility The Abandoned Facility is the current hub of Roblox's Myths. RM - Myth Knowledge Assessment The Myth Knowledge Assessment is the test that all Associates must take in order to proceed to Clearance Level 1, this will test their ability to investigate games, as well as their knowledge about myths. Facility The Roblox's Myths Containment Facility is an old project that was discontinued and is no longer open. Trivia Mrflimflam has made many myths videos inside some of their games References Roblox's Myths Youtube Channel Roblox' Myths Twitter Discord Server
