To protect you and your companions, read the following information on the security of the air to Aspen and on the alternative routes from Aspen to Denver with the closure of the I-70 road. Tracking and road conditions Real-time road updates and road conditions are available 24 hours a day at Cotrip.org or on Twitter @coloradodot. For more information, contact CDOT customer service hotline at number 970-243-2368, or . Hotline is available Monday, Friday, 7:30 and 16:30. In the event of an emergency, call 911. I-70 in Glenwood Canyon | . CDOT in 2020 Grizzly Creek and Glenwood Canyon suffered a fire. As a result, the area is now subject to castings of debris, mud or landslide landslides. Automoblilists traveling on the I-70 must be prepared at reduced speed or road closures in the Glenwood Canyon section of the motorway (between the exit 116 and the 140 output). If the forecasts provide for rain, motorists must Provide a possible security closure of the I-70, parking areas and Glenwood Canyon cycle path in the canyon. From the possibility of debris casts, landslides or boulders. Constructive impacts will be much lighter on the I-70 in the Glenwood Canyon compared to the summer 2020. To ensure safety, motorists must plan occasional lane closures, obey reduced speeds and driving carefully. The CDOT also urges travelers to stay focused on the road and to avoid distracted driving. Please see here, for information on the Glenwood Canyon Parking Areas and Cycle path. Plan ahead of motorists who intend to travel on the I-70, visit parking areas or walk the Glenwood Canyons cycle path should pay close attention to weather forecasts. If it rains in forecasts, be prepared for safety closures. The CDOT advises travelers to have a backup plan in the event of a necessary closure (see below for information on the detour). Visit, Cotrip.org, for the latest road conditions and route options. The CDOT also advises travelers to bring an emergency kit with water, snacks, a flashlight and a blanket, as the mountain conditions often change suddenly. Official deviation of the I-70 during safety closures If you expect a security closure of the I-70 in the Glenwood Canyon lasts more than two hours, the CDOT recommends an alternative northern route using Colorado Highway 9, US Highway 40 and Colorado Highway 13. A, motorists should provide delays on the alternative route due to further detour traffic. Eastbound I-70: A, motorists traveling east from Utah or Grand Junction can reach the Denver metropolitan area along the location mentioned above. Before deviating on any alternative path, Motorists should refer to www.cotrip.org, for the latest road conditions. The CDOT strongly discomferts travelers to use highways south of the I-70 for an alternative route, due to extensive construction closures. Motorists must not use Cottonwood Pass Road (in the counties of Eagle / Garfield), Hagerman Pass, or other counties or forest forests The roads in Eagle and Garfield are counties as a detour. These roads are not built for heavy traffic or oversized commercial vehicles (below). Westbound I-70: Automotive drivers coming from the Denver subway area or from Interstate 25 can take the above route backwards. Go west on I-70 to Silverthorne, then turn north on CO 9. In Kremmling, travelers should turn on Westbound US Highway 40 towards Springs Steamboat. After reaching Craig, the motorists can head south on Route CO 13 towards the rifle. Access to I-70 Westbound is at gunpoint. Google Map The path view only on a desktop: A | For some reason when you click the shortcut on a mobile device, an incorrect route may be defaulted.
