THE WEATHER IN ENGLAND

The English say "Other countries have a climate, in England we have weather!" It happens because the weather changes more often than in other countries. British weather can be cold and wet or hot and sunny because of the winds that blow from the Atlantic Ocean. They blow 2 days out of every 3.

In spring sunbathers and showers follow each other as often during the day that an umbrella or a coat is not always necessary in England. The weather changes so rapidly that it is difficult to forecast. It is not unusual for people to experience four weather types in one day.

The weather in spring is generally mild but sometimes the days are really bright. Spring is the season when nature awakes from its long winter sleep. The daffodils grow, the sky becomes blue, and the sun grows warmer. Dandelions are full of seed. The days grow longer and brighter. The grass grows green and the trees are green.

Summer is the hottest season in England. The sun is high in the sky, the days are long, and the nights are short and warm. It's time for holidays, when people go to the seaside for sunbathing and swimming. It's time for the school holidays and the summer holidays.

Autumn is a season of winds and beautiful scenery. The leaves turn yellow and red and fall to the ground and the birds migrate to warmer countries. In winter the days become shorter. A cold wind blows from the north. The days are short and the nights are long. In England September and October are warm and dry, but November is the coldest month. The weather is generally in a bad mood. The weather begins to take a different colour. The trees turn brown. The days are short and the nights are long.

In England they can hardly imagine that weather is never the same in every country. They are used to the weather in their own country. They know that the weather is going to be hot. Children in England enjoy the weather because they can enjoy it. They know that the weather is not the same in every country. They know that the weather is not the same in every country. They know that the weather is not the same in every country.

R-Blend 4 in A Row

Play a game like reading a word. If you read it correctly you cover it with your finger. Think the next person reads it, and give it to them. The first person to read 4 in a row wins. Don't forget to try and keep your partner from getting 4 in a row.
