Xperia weather widget for any android

By Radsh Nicolae A · 10 June 2019 If you have been to the Galaxy S10 in recent weeks, so it is probably noticed that the phone warns users of current weather conditions. They just need to touch that notification and enter a Samsung Weather Property. This completes the rest of a UI perfectly. And it is also in that fresh dark mode with the rest of the interface, if you have that option tended naturally. And there is a set of weather widgets on the main screen. Things could not improve if you have the S10 smartphone, but what if you don't do it? If you are updating the Galaxy S9 or Note 9 for the official Beta ui, then has a Widget of the Old Samsung Samsung UI clock together with the new weather widget. To create the weather widget that replied the S10 experience, you need to use Xwidget Pro and your desire will be awarder. The app comes with a detailed information screen of the extra time, no banners no ads does not care and access all the online gallery and unlimited download (more than 1800 widgets at the time and count). And this is not everything, so you have to try lut. Let me help you with that. How to replicate the Galaxy S10 Weather widget on your Android: at the beginning you need to download the Xwidget Pro app; Thus, you can set a new widget on the home screen. Choose xwidget of size 4x2; Now, search S9 in Xwidget for the meteorological widget; Here you will see the watch, so you can click on the Edit button and remove the elements accordingly; You should also move all weather objects on the left side; After making all these changes to the S10 style, click the Save button; Touch the main screen, and this is practically everything. If it looks similar to what you have on S10, then you're nice to go. But if it is not, you can continue to change some of the size of the elements accordingly.
